DEFENDANT: ADRIAN C PETERS
CASE NUMBER: 3:15-CR-50026(1)

MANDATORY CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISED RELEASE PURSUANT TO 18 U.S.C § 3583(d)

Upon release from imprisonment, you shall be on supervised release for a term of:

Life. Any costs of imprisonment are waived due to the defendant's inability to pay.

The court imposes those conditions identified below:

During the period of supervised release:

1. The defendant shall not commit another Federal, State, or local crime.
2. The defendant shall not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. The defendant shall register and comply with all requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (42 U.S.C. § 16913).
4. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample if the collection of such a sample is required by law.
5. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance AND submit to one drug test within 15 days of release on supervised release and at least two periodic tests thereafter, up to 104 periodic tests for use of a controlled substance during each year of supervised release. [This mandatory condition may be ameliorated or suspended by the court for any defendant if reliable sentencing information indicates a low risk of future substance abuse by the defendant.]

DISCRETIONARY CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISED RELEASE PURSUANT TO 18 U.S.C § 3563(b) AND 18 U.S.C § 3583(d)

Discretionary Conditions — The court orders that you abide by the following conditions during the term of supervised release because such conditions are reasonably related to the factors set forth in § 3553(a)(1) and (a)(2)(B), (C), and (D); such conditions involve only such deprivations of liberty or property as are reasonably necessary for the purposes indicated in § 3553 (a)(2) (B), (C), and (D); and such conditions are consistent with any pertinent policy statement issued by the Sentencing Commission pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 994a. The court imposes those conditions identified below:

During the period of supervised release:

1. The defendant shall seek, and work conscientiously at, lawful employment or, if he is not gainfully employed, he shall pursue conscientiously a course of study or vocational training that will equip him for employment.
2. The defendant shall not knowingly meet or communicate with any person whom he knows to be engaged, or planning to be engaged, in criminal activity and shall not knowingly meet or communicate with the following persons: instant offense and stipulated conduct victims.
3. The defendant shall refrain from any use of alcohol and from any use of a narcotic drug or other controlled substance, as defined in § 102 of the Controlled Substances Act (21 U.S.C. § 802), without a prescription by a licensed medical practitioner.
4. The defendant shall not possess a firearm, destructive device, or other dangerous weapon.
5. The defendant shall participate, at the direction of a probation officer, in a substance abuse treatment program, which may include urine testing up to a maximum of 104 tests per year. The defendant shall participate, at the direction of a probation officer, in a mental health treatment program, and shall take any medications prescribed by the mental health treatment provider.
6. The defendant shall not knowingly leave from the federal judicial district where you are being supervised, unless granted permission to leave by the court or a probation officer. The geographic area of the Northern District of Illinois currently consists of the Illinois counties of Cook, DuPage, Grundy, Kane, Kendall, Lake, LaSalle, Will, Boone, Carroll, DeKalb, Jo Daviess, Lee, McHenry, Ogle, Stephenson, Whiteside, and Winnebago.
7. The defendant shall report to a probation officer as directed by the court or a probation officer.

DEFENDANT: ADRIAN C PETERS

CASE NUMBER: 3:15-CR-50026(1)

8. The defendant shall permit a probation officer to visit the defendant at any reasonable time at home or any other reasonable location specified by the probation officer. The defendant shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view of the probation officer.
9. The defendant shall notify a probation officer within 72 hours, after becoming aware of any change in residence, employer, or workplace and, absent constitutional or other legal privilege, answer inquiries by a probation officer. The defendant shall answer truthfully any inquiries by a probation officer, subject to any constitutional or other legal privilege.
10. The defendant shall notify a probation officer within 72 hours if after being arrested, charged with a crime, or questioned by a law enforcement officer.
11. The defendant shall satisfy such other special conditions as ordered below.
12. The defendant shall submit his person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers [computers (as defined in 18 U.S.C. 1030(e)(1)), other electronic communications or data storage devices or media,] or office, to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer(s). Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation of release. The defendant shall warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. An officer(s) may conduct a search pursuant to this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that the defendant has violated a condition of his supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation. Any search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISED RELEASE PURSUANT TO 18 U.S.C. 3563(b)(22) and 3583(d)

The court imposes those conditions identified below:

During the term of supervised release:

1. The defendant shall participate in a sex offender treatment program. The specific program and provider will be determined by a probation officer. The defendant shall comply with all recommended treatment which may include psychological and physiological testing. The defendant shall maintain use of all prescribed medications.
2. The defendant shall comply with the requirements of the Computer and Internet Monitoring Program as administered by the United States Probation Office. The defendant shall consent to the installation of computer monitoring software on all identified computers to which he has access. The software may restrict and/or record any and all activity on the computer, including the capture of keystrokes, application information, Internet use history, email correspondence, and chat conversations. A notice will be placed on the computer at the time of installation to warn others of the existence of the monitoring software. The defendant shall not remove, tamper with, reverse engineer, or in any way circumvent the software.
3. The defendant shall not possess or use at any location (including his place of employment), any computer, external storage device, or any device with access to the Internet or any online computer service without the prior approval of a probation officer. This includes any Internet service provider, bulletin board system, or any other public or private network or email system.
4. The defendant shall not view or possess child pornography. If the treatment provider determines that exposure to other sexually stimulating material may be detrimental to the treatment process, or that additional conditions are likely to assist the treatment process, such proposed conditions shall be promptly presented to the court, for a determination, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3583(e)(2), regarding whether to enlarge or otherwise modify the conditions of supervision to include conditions consistent with the recommendations of the treatment provider.
5. The defendant shall not, without the approval of a probation officer and treatment provider, engage in activities that will put him in unsupervised private contact with any person under the age of 18, and he shall not knowingly visit locations where persons under the age of 18 regularly congregate, including parks, schools, school bus stops, playgrounds, and childcare facilities. This condition does not apply to contact in the course of normal commercial business or unintentional incidental contact.
6. The defendant's employment shall be restricted to the district and division where he can reside or is supervised, unless approval is granted by a probation officer. Prior to accepting any form of employment, the defendant shall seek the approval of a probation officer, in order to allow the probation officer, the opportunity to assess the level of risk to the community he will pose if employed in a particular capacity. The defendant shall not participate in any volunteer activity that may cause the defendant to come into direct contact with children except under circumstances approved in advance by a probation officer and treatment provider.
7. The defendant shall provide the probation officer with copies of his telephone bills, all credit card statements/receipts, and any other financial information requested.
